

Plagiarism and Cheating

Plagiarism is the theft of someone else's work. Students' assignments are to reflect an independent demonstration of understanding.

Using artificial intelligence (AI) on assignments will also be considered plagiarism.

Students who do not submit their own work by deadline will be assigned Study Hall during the lunch break. They will have this one opportunity to complete the assignment and teachers will assess whatever work is completed within that timeframe.