

Spring break is aligned with Easter

Alternate Calendar Differences

183 teacher days (8 non-instructional)

174 student days

330-minute instructional day (957 hours)

- Discussion – no concerns from SCC

7. Student Reports - Grade 11 Tilka Chapman

- Everything is going well. Students aren't as stressed. Break between semesters was good. Classes seem to be going well and no big issues have been raised.
- Students are happy to be back at sports. Sr. Girls' basketball is doing well.
- Parking lot – students have been left notes that they are not parking in the right spots. It is hard to see lines because of all the snow. Mrs. Messer brought up that these notes are likely coming from Student Support Workers.

8. Kinistin Representative Report – Loretta Nippi – not present

9. NESD Board of Director – Lori Kidney - not present

10. Principal's Report – Carmen Messer

- Student Conference discussion. 2 nights seems like a lot. Marks are on Edsby so can be seen immediately. Any issues get discussed prior to conferences. Are they underutilized? Or a waste of time? Could there be something like an open house? Maybe a presentation on assessments, Edsby, or playground updates? Carmen will look in to options – can format be changed? Could there be more education session for families?

13. Next Meeting – March 15, 2022 at 4:30pm (as SLCs will be March 8)

14. Adjourn 5:07pm
